HYLE

Hyle map

Chic Community Office

Embrace every change. Keep up with the trend.
Passionate about every possible progress:
with the unchanged spirit of staying young and positive, we are happy to inject new momentum into the world. Just like Hyle, which based on the concept of Community Office,

never stop changing and improving,
never stop being trendy and outstanding.
Hyle comes for us and because of us.
It is here to interpret new aesthetics of workplace
and new gesture of working people.

Flexible workspace

Hyle Creates a Brand-new Workplace

Workplace is a stage for the new generation to fully express themselves:

the latest bag, the trendy flattie, suits jacket go with jeans or T-shirt with A-line skirt. Infinite possibilities in the workplace for the new generation. Same with Hyle office desks.

They can either be extended or combined;

they can be used either as freestanding ones or shared ones. New working attitude needs the support of a new working space.

A Space for You, the Newcomers.

Every graduation season witness vigorous young people rush to workplace.

Just leaving the campus, they would naturally get intimidated by cold and stiff office buildings.

The lined-up layout of workstations seems perfect for these beginners.

Convenient for communication, idea exchange and learning from each other.

Right, we never agree with the "staring at the computer screen for eight hours" mode.

After two hours of intensive working, please leave your desk to the small sofa beside, and have a cup of coffee.

You may need a little chit chat with your colleagues, or need ten minutes for yourself.

Taking rest between works can absolutely enhance working efficiency.

Smooth Working Gesture

Relatively open workstation layout, a perfect choice for mobile working in this new era, for flexible working hours and flexible working staff, open your laptop and hang your favorite bag on the screen, then start your work smoothly, either to draft a contract or provide a desirable solution for your client, we are absolutely there for flexibility and freedom of work.

Comfort and Safety Especially for You

If you happen to be an administration staff, your privacy and safety at work are taken care of here.

The half-closed layout makes the space comfortable and private for you.

The double-layered working desk, consisting of a big shelf panel and a large working desktop, provides you with a space to categorize all documents and materials.

It is the Best of Times: A Time of Communication

Information exchange can never be more emphasized than it is now.
Private negotiation between two people, free chat among four people, or a meeting of more people;
Hyle can definitely meet demands of various communication.
Most importantly, it offers not only space solutions, but wonderful working atmosphere.

Telephone Booth in the Internet+ Era

Telephone booth is something of last century.

What we need now is probably sending an e-mail, making a conference call, or communicating about a contract detailviaa social app, Hyle provides single sofas and small tables, perfect for office workers in the internet era.

One, Two, Three: Something About Combination

Which kind of seat arrangement is needed most?
Different enterprises and different departments have different demands.

So there's no definite answer to it.

The most suitable combination is the best solution.

Grey Zone in the Office Space

It's either white or black?
Only those immatures would think like that.
We know life needs a grey zone,the same for office work.
It is an office desk, or a negotiation table, or a conference table?
It's up to you.
Use it as you want.

Big Screen Never Be Absent for a Meeting

To revise a design drawing,
to improve a space layout,
to find out what your client likes
or to discuss the feasibility of a proposal, Hyle offers you conference tables with a video system,
which is explicit, dynamic, convenient and accurate.
That's the spirit of a conference, isn't it?

Rest for a Better Fight

Rest for a Better Fight

Except office desks and conference rooms, have you ever imagined your office space in other looks?

Red Lip Sofa, Décor or Dependence?

When you need a break,
Will the red lip sofa be your favorite?
Quiet space, comfortable seats and bright color,
make it decoration for tea time;
If you need to a recharge when working overtime,
it will always have your back.

important position.
It's an era when you can easily fall behind if not continuous learning.

Hyle admires the learning spirit,
and brings a book bar into the office space.

It is a corner in the workplace,
but the energy it brings goes far beyond the corner it takes.

Monologue of a Café Bar

A café bar doesn't provide coffee only.
A tea room is not just about green tea.
Cola? Yoghurt? Hot chocolate?
Diverse faces with diversified tastes,
in the tea room, we tell all kinds of life stories.

Cabinets could Be Open as Well

Clothes and bags are no longer tucked in drawers

They can now stay in the workplace in a more open way. Let everything be revealed under the sunlight, with privacy being respected: this the workplace custom of the new generation.

Hyle cabinets, with what should be open stay open, private stay private, make everything more organized.

Details

Unit hook and double hook available make your small personal space full of fun.

New-type soundproof cotton can not only be degraded and recycled, but also absorb noise as a "green vanguard".

Arc design of the deskside is both for good looking and your arm support.

A very secret open drawer, the best hiding place for earphone, fountain pen and mobile phone.

Black large-capacity patch panel can meet all the charging demands of various kind of smart devices in the internet era. So cool.
