Varna, Ballet Romantics in Base Design

In 1930s, the ballet Fairy marked the beginning of a new era of romantic ballet. Inspired by the elegance and ingenuity of dancing feet of the ballet dancer, VARNA is born with vitality and power of control, endowing modern office spaces with speechless artistic beauty.

Executive Space

Concise, Smooth, and Classic

The desk, file cabinet, and back cabinet with different colors combine in a harmonious way to obtain a concise yet elegant appearance. It is durable with the high quality material.

Open and elegant space made exclusively for business elites. The solid wood desktop is steady and smooth, the ballet feet understructure has the glow of starry sky. Elegance will follow you when using VARNA.

Pragmatism with Incomparable Beauty

VARNA is designed with efficient space to store files, documents, and office tools. Just like the modern ballet that is simplified in backgrounds, VARNA also provides larger space with concise appearance.

The side file cabinet in VARNA series combines solid wood and glass to maintain both Bending resistance and permeability. The one-piece file cabinet and back cabinet is designed with a 5cm feet for moistureproof, and its load-bearing capability is tested. With a powerful storage system, each item can find a home.

Flip wiring system, convenient for charging various electronic devices.

Slidable felt baffles , the beauty of rhythm brought by "display" and "hide";
Press-to-open walnut color cabinet door is smooth and handleless, giving the pleasure of silence.

Light, elegant, and powerful VARNA series—I-VARNA is the resonance of time. It is the continuation of classic design elements, for classic is timeless.

Staff Space

Space Extension for Fluent Working

Staff workstation in I-VARNA series extends its desktop depth to 730mm, and the cabinet edge is made by using the 3D laser binding technique that is environment friendly and can obtain a smooth touch. With a broad tabletop, you can easily handle your job even in a busy day.

An L-shaped executive workstation can be combined with staff workstations for collaboration working or functions separately. Different combinations can be used to implement different team forms. Varna is the perfect practice of space extension with its fine texture endowing space with warmth and calmness.

New Romance for Working with Elegance

H-shaped workstations is perfect for a group of employees to work in collaboration. The Morandi color is more gentle and relaxing when matched with the light color base. Working here is comfortable and relax.

Line-shaped staff workstation is neat and concise, and team members can find their own space. With the desk-mounted screen, even in a noisy space, you can enjoy focused work without being interrupted. VARNA listens to your needs no matter the time and space.
