CHEN SERIES

C1

The hand-tufted upholstery shapes the sofa into a sculpted form, offering comfort when seated and resilient rebound as you rise.

C2

Clean, precise lines convey the calm authority of a modern business space. The 109° angled armrests provide natural support when seated forward and contour gently to the back when reclining.

C3

Drawing on Corbusier's modernist aesthetics, its slender metal frame flows seamlessly through the armrests and base, with every detail reflecting refined precision and quiet elegance.

C4

The lumbar and back curves are ergonomically contoured, with 13 cm thick cushions providing zoned support for head, spine, and lower back. A harmonious blend of beige and gray adds visual depth while creating an open, relaxed environment for conversation.

C5

The 27 cm wide, double-layered armrests offer soft support wherever you rest your elbows during conversation. In the afternoon, they ease neck and shoulder tension, letting workdays flow with balanced comfort.

C6

Litchi-grain leather with a refined, tactile texture pairs effortlessly with deep black accents, creating a polished, professional presence for any meeting space.

Amid a fast-paced workday, C6 offers gentle support for brief rests. With 10 cm-high armrests padded in premium latex foam, it naturally cradles the shoulders and neck, allowing moments of relaxed repose.

Thoughtfully compact, it claims no space yet offers full comfort. Draped in soft, breathable linen, it creates a relaxed, leisurely spot – perfect for quick recharge between work sessions.

C7

A Place to Nest, A Heart at Rest

The squared outer form creates a reassuring boundary, while its soft inner contours offer a sheltered place to rest.
C7 welcomes relaxed conversation among equals and peaceful moments of reflection alone.

By the Window, Conversation Flows

A seat by the window makes room for reflection and conversation. From decisions to discussions, efficiency and ease come together naturally.

Slim Lines, Subtle Contrast

C7's slim side profile keeps the space open and airy. Contrasting trim traces the edges, adding subtle depth and a contemporary touch.

Instant Ease, Lasting Comfort

Your elbow finds a generous place to rest. From narrow to wide, the armrest's contours offer steady support without uncomfortable pressure, however you sit.

A Seat to Unwind, A Time to Talk

From shared conversations to quiet reflection, C7 offers today's leaders a place to meet and retreat, shaped by simple forms and a sense of ease.
